

Amherst Public Library AV Materials Damage Policy

Amherst Public Library acquires both entertainment and informational AV materials to satisfy a variety of viewing interests. Patrons may borrow AV materials subject to Circulation Services Policies and Procedures.

Patrons and/or organizations use library AV materials AS IS and must assume any damages to the materials while in their possession. Amherst Public Library accepts NO responsibility or financial liability for possible damage caused to any AV material players using library materials.

Patrons and/or organizations are responsible for returning all borrowed AV materials in good operating condition. In the case of loss, theft, or damage, the patron or organization is responsible for the full replacement cost.
